

AFRICAN ADVENTURE: OPMs swapped the Cornwall/ Devon League for South Africa over the Easter break, having left Plymouth College last Friday (pictured above) for a two week trip, which includes games against Milnton RFC and Robertson – the home of Afrikaans rugby. The group, including 17 players, were also visiting former player Darren Clarke, who now lives in South Africa